Ingleby House

Ingleby House is a residential care home located in Warwickshire. Here we support up to eight adults with autism, learning disabilities, mental health needs and low-level challenging behaviours.

The home has seven double bedrooms and one self-contained apartment on the ground-floor. There are also plenty of communal areas for socialising, including an open plan lounge, kitchen and dining room. The people we support also share a bathroom and have access to a relaxing room, for those that prefer a quieter environment.

Based in Bedworth, this home is in a great location on a main bus route into Coventry and Nuneaton. There are also lots of local amenities nearby, such as shops, cafes and leisure facilities. Minors Welfare Park is only a short drive down the road too, perfect for those that like to explore the outdoors.

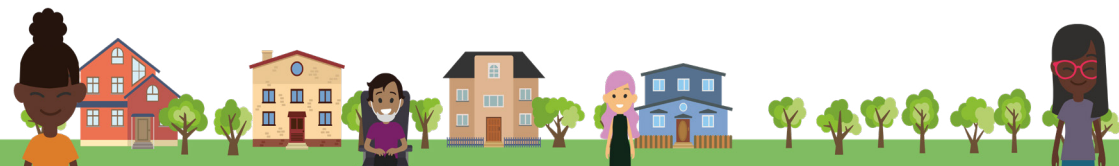

A place to call home

We are currently looking for one housemate to join us at Ingleby House. The vacancy would be ideal for an adult aged between 20-65, who is looking for a friendly and peaceful home. The vacant bedroom is located upstairs, so would suit an individual that is fully mobile.

Ingleby House has a quiet and relaxing environment and the people we support enjoy socialising together.

Our ethos at Ingleby House is about thinking differently, offering real choice, real opportunities and enabling people to develop their independence and life skills.
