The Lodge

The Lodge is a residential care home in Bracknell, Berkshire. We provide high-quality support for up to five people with cerebral palsy, learning and physical disabilities, challenging behaviour and mental health needs.

Our five-bedroom home features a spacious kitchen and lounge, both newly decorated and perfect for socialising! We also have a bright and airy conservatory, and a large garden where our housemates love to spend time enjoying nature.

Located next to Edmunds Green park, we love to go for walks and see what wildlife we can spot! Our local town is a short walk or bus journey away, where there are many shops and restaurants to visit.

A place to call home

The Lodge is perfect for individuals aged 50+ who love to socialise. We actively encourage the people we support to take part in in-house and community activities, such as the local disco, arts and crafts, karaoke, and attending the community club!

Our team is trained to provide compassionate support to individuals. Dignity, respect, choice and independence are central to the way care is delivered at The Lodge.
