Giving it great character, our chalet-style, detached home features Tudor beams both externally and internally. Our home has five bedrooms, with two located upstairs and three downstairs. The living room has a large, statement fireplace that provides a warm and cosy atmosphere.

Our home features shared communal areas, including a dining room, lounge, kitchen and quiet area. There's also a spacious rear garden with a vegetable patch.

We organise engaging day trips for the people we support, including shopping, visits to the local pubs and restaurants, Sealife Centre and the zoo.

A place to call home

Our home is in Caversham, conveniently located on bus routes to both Reading and Oxford. Our semi-rural area offers a peaceful living environment, with a local shop just around the corner for everyday needs. A short walk takes you to the heart of Caversham village, where there are a range of local amenities.

Our village is near the River Thames, providing beautiful views and opportunities for riverside walks. Our location is ideal for those who enjoy a quieter lifestyle but still want to remain connected to amenities.
