Hemlington Hall

Hemlington Hall is a residential care home based in Middlesbrough, North Yorkshire. We provide support for up to eight individuals with autism, learning disabilities, challenging behaviour, Down's syndrome and epilepsy.

Our home is a large, detached farmhouse with six bedrooms, one on the ground floor and five on the first floor. Our home also benefits from communal areas such as a large back garden, spacious lounge-diner and a small quiet room.

We also have two self-contained lodges with their own private gardens - perfect for those looking for greater independence.

Our home is located in a quiet cul-de-sac, near Hemlington Lake. We enjoy heading out for walks around the lake and visiting our local shops. We also have a service vehicle, ideal for trips further afield.

A place to call home

At Hemlington Hall, we encourage the people we support to get involved in activities both in-house and out in the community! We attend local clubs three nights a week, where we take part in various activities such as karaoke sessions and discos! We love trips out to the cinema and concerts, plus we organise an annual holiday for those housemates that want to get involved.

When relaxing at home, we enjoy arts and craft sessions or putting our feet up for a movie night.

We provide dedicated one-to-one support and build person-centered care plans that are tailored to each individual's needs.
