Bramley Avenue

Bramley Avenue is one of our residential care homes located in Melbourn, Cambridgeshire. Here, we support up to five adults with learning disabilities, physical disabilities, autism, cerebral palsy and epilepsy.

Situated in a peaceful area, our detached bungalow is perfect for those who enjoy a quiet life. With overhead tracking hoists and a fully adapted communal bathroom, Bramley Avenue is built with accessibility in mind. We have lovely spacious living areas and a large garden with a vegetable patch.

Located in a cosy village, we have an adapted minibus available so the people we support can visit nearby towns such as Royston or Cambridge City Centre. The village benefits from a number of local amenities including a doctors surgery, pharmacy, shops, cafes, and public library.

A place to call home

At Bramley Avenue, we encourage our housemates to engage in both in-house and community-based activities, boosting wellbeing and independence. We currently enjoy going swimming, visiting Duxford Air Museum, the beach, garden centres, cafes and cinema outings. In our home we enjoy baking, crafts and flower arranging!

Our team works closely with the people we support, ensuring they achieve their goals and ambitions. We provide dedicated support and build person-centred care plans, tailored to meet individual needs!
